

CAMP ADVAIT

ESCAPE | UNWIND | DISCOVER

We, at Camp Advait, focus on bringing together a unique blend of nature and culture. Located in the lap of the Garhwal Himalayas, we are bestowed with a diversity of flora and fauna of the Shivalik region.

The richness of Kumaoni and Garhwali culture of our mountains add to the cultural aspect. Together, we envisage a space where you, Our 'paun' (guest in Garhwali), gets an experience of an alternate living.

Ideal for independent co-working startups, digital nomads, freelance professionals, backpackers, corporate events and those wishing to reconnect with nature.

Do's and Don'ts:

The following rules are strictly followed by the Camp Management. Actions are liable to be taken against those who are seen to not following the mentioned points.

- 1) We strictly advise visitors to not bring edible items which come in Plastic covers/ bags since it becomes difficult for us to dispose it off later. Rather, we urge to kindly take it back and not litter nearby our premises.
- 2) Visitors are advised to not shout, make noise or play loud music between 10 PM to 7 AM as we are located near the forest premises.
- 3) Food will be served in the dining hall only. Visitors are strictly advised to not take the food to their respective tents.
- 4) Any damage done to the camp property with respect to Tents, Flower beds, any sort of construction etc. will be charged in cash.
- 5) Consumption of Cigarettes and Liquor is strictly prohibited inside the tent. Those who are caught will be fined Rs. 10000/-.
- 6) Visitors are advised to use dustbins which are located outside of every tent and help us in keeping the environment clean. Those who caught littering will be fined Rs10000/- as we do not promote such habits in our workplace. Cigarette butts to be thrown in dustbins only.
- 7) Guests are advised to not roam around at night near the river side or near camp premises as the area is frequently visited by wildlife and can be fatal. In case of any event, Camp Advait will not be held responsible for any loss of life or damage caused whatsoever.
- 8) Guests are advised to go their tents properly so as to prevent any loss of wildlife enter inside.
- 9) We strictly advise visitors to not feed any leftover to our Dogs as proper food arrangement has already been done for them. Kindly treat them as family.
- 10) The management is gradually promoting more eco-friendly activities amidst staff and visitors. Any recommendations/ suggestions/ comments will be highly appreciated.
- 11) No Arms beyond this point.

We thank our visitors for taking our pointers into consideration. We wish for a pleasant stay at Camp Advait.
